Department of Forests

Office of the Conservator of Forests

Order

No. 4/33/FD/2000-2001/3615

Whereas, the Government of Goa, being aware of the threats to which the forests and protected areas of the state are prone to, have decided to provide the forest personnel of the state with fire-arms.

And whereas, the Government of Goa are conscious that the use of fire arms may expose the forest personnel to vexatious criminal proceedings and that there is need for providing them immunity from prosecution without sanction.

Now, therefore, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred under Section 197(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure hereby direct that forest officers starting from the level of forest guards shall be eligible for immunity given under sub-section (2), Section 197, ibid. It is further directed that.

Wherever firing is resorted to by any forest officer, each such incident shall be enquired into by Executive Magistrate of the locality. Any proceeding including instituting a criminal case or effecting an arrest can be initiated by the Police, only if, it is held as a result of the Magisterial Enquiry that the use of the fire arms has been unnecessary, unwarranted and excessive and such report has been examined and accepted by the Government.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Richard D'Souza, Conservator of Forests.
